➤ Important Regulations

1. Any visitor from the above mentioned countries arriving to Jordan, he/she can pay and get the visa upon arrival to Jordan at any boarder point, except the following:
  - If you are crossing King Hussein/ Allenby Bridge you should obtain the visa in advance from any Jordanian consulate, the visa will be issued within 5 working days in the Jordanian consulate in London.
  - If you are crossing via Wadi Araba Boarder (Aqaba); No visas are required in advance. You will be asked to pay your visa fees upon exiting Jordan, unless;
  - If you are in possession of the Jordan Pass and intend to stay in Jordan three nights or more; your visa fees will be waived. A proof of purchase will be required to obtain such exemption if you apply at the consulate.
  - Payments for Visas at the Airport or Boarders will be in Jordanian Local Currency; Bearu de Change is operating at the Airport.
2. Holders of Diplomatic, Official, and Service Passports whom are in possession of a Note Verbal can get their Gratis visas from the consulate by filling Form A (excluding countries not listed above as the need to apply via Form B).

3. Groups of five people or more are exempt from any entry visa fees if:
  - Their stay in Jordan is more than three days, and;
  - Their visit to Jordan had been arranged by a certified and an accredited Jordanian tour operator (<http://www.visitjordan.com>).
4. No changes have been made with regards to Syrian Nationals residing in the UK travelling into Jordan using a Syrian Passport; visas are upon arrival. As for Syrians going to Jordan from anywhere else please contact the Ministry of Interior in Jordan directly.
5. Single Females (aged 17 - 40) need to apply on Visa Form B, excluding single females travelling with their families or travelling with formal delegations coming to Jordan.
6. Indian nationals will only obtain a single entry visa valid for two weeks from the date of issue at the consulate, hence you are strongly recommended to apply at the consulate in person (not by post) no more than a week before the intended travel date, otherwise you can obtain visas upon arrival to Jordan.
7. Palestinian Passport Holders with Palestinian ID (لم الشمل) who require a Double Entry visa or in doubt of their visa requirement situation please apply on Visa Application Form B.
